UPDATES ON4KST's chat telnet client (V 1.5)
This is a simple telnet client specially developed for accessing the chats of ON4KST when you can't (or don't want) to use the WEB interface. I made this software for my own use because in my radio QTH by the countryside I only can access the Internet using the GPRS mobile phone. The cost of this service (at least in Spain) depends on the number of bytes sent/received, so using the WEB interface was simply too expensive. On the other hand, standard telnet clients did not offer the functionalities and formatting options I wanted. Read more and download at:
